Terms and Conditions to Valuation Options

1	Priestley and Sons Moving & Storage, Inc. has the option to repair, pay the cost of repairs, replace, or pay the replacement cost value, whichever is less.
2	Ready to assemble furniture, pressed wood furniture, concrete furniture, floral arrangements, plants, pots & planters, fiberboard or glass constructed furniture will be moved at the shippers risk.
3	Any furniture, dressers, cabinets, file cabinets, appliances, etc. that are moved with contents inside will be moved at the shippers risk to the piece itself, floors, walls, rails, etc.
4	Anything not listed on the replacement cost itemized list will be moved / handled under the protection of option 1 "Released Value Protection"
5	Regardless of what the shipper lists and purchases coverage for on the valuation schedule, the only items that will be covered will be furniture items or any items that are pre-arranged to be packed, moved, and unpacked by the carrier. "Furniture" includes items such as tables, beds, chairs, sofas, desks, and other large items that are not normally packed in boxes / crates for a move. "Furniture" does not include items such as mirrors, glass table tops, glass shelves, lamps, electronics, Televisions, marble and breakable types of items that are normally packed in boxes / crates for a move.
6	Items packed by the shipper are moved at the shippers risk.
7	Any Marble, glass, or slate items over five feet in length, even if packed and/or crated, will be moved at customers risk.
8	Any and all electronics, Televisions, Computers, Copiers, etc. Will be moved at customers risk.
9	Items that must be crated in order to purchase replacement cost protection are: Marble, paintings, mirrors, statues, glass table tops and shelving or any items of extraordinary value. Items of extraordinary value are defined as any single item valued at more than $100 per pound. The shipper must notify the carrier of above items at least five (5) days in advance of the move date in order to arrange for third party crating services at additional cost to the shipper. If the shipper fails to do this, these items will be moved at the released value protection level regardless of the valuation option purchased.
10	The Carrier is not responsible for the internal workings of any mechanical or electronic devices. These items include and are not limited to: appliances, computers, copiers, exercise equipment, clocks, etc.
11	If the shipper does not select / sign for either valuation option on the bill of lading, the shipment may be refused.
12	Valuation coverage only applies to the individual lost or damaged item(s), it does not cover repair or replacement of pairs, sets, or collections.
13	Should damage or loss occur, the shipper should contact Priestley and Sons Moving at 503-661-7920 and request a claim form. At this time, the office may also schedule an appointment for a representative to come to the location to survey / inspect the item(s). all claims must be filed within three months from the date of delivery.
14	Do not discard or repair any damaged items or containers, as the carrier reserves the right to inspect all items.
